States that Mr Cotton asks that payment may be made by the end of July of the following Sums:— (1) first instalment on Tigers £ 1500.
(2) Balance of the 2nd Instl: for Statue — } £ 333-6-8

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The original idea was to make a Statue for £ 5000. to be paid in 3 instalments The first instalment viz 1666⅔ £ was paid in C/D no R: 4630-1 a/c 25-1-1905 A further Sum of £ 1000, being part of the

Hence the total amount paid to Mr Bolton on account of Statue is £3666⅔ and according to the agreement he is entitled to the payment of the second instalment in full when the Statue is completed in clay. Taking the cost of the Statue at £6000, and therefore its two-thirds at £4000, a Sum of £333⅓ is still due to Mr Bolton His claim is therefore correct

As regards the tigers (vide item no 4 in the Private Secy's D.O. of the 19.10.06 it was asked to include an additional charge of 4,500 £ But this office papers do not show whether this estimate is finally accepted & whether any undertaking is taken therefor from Mr Bolton. The expenditure has no doubt to be formally sanctioned but there is very little option in the matter as the work appears to have been taken in hand. As Mr Macnaughtie has not said anything further about the reduction in the cost of embellishments I suppose the original estimate stands good This may be definitely ascertained from Mr Macnaughtie before the estimate is formally sanctioned, but in the mean while the payment of £1500 on that account may I think be made. Will you kindly let me know whether you were able to take any action in regard to this?

Dear Mr. Madhava Rao

I have heard from Mr. Colton by this last mail and he asks that payment may be made by the end of July of the following sums:-

(1) First instalment on tigers £1500/-

(2) Balance of 2/3rds on marble statue of His late Highness. £333-6-8

Total £1833-6-8

(1) is the first third of item (4) of my letter

letter of the 19th October. (2) is apparently the balance required to make up the sum of £4000/- being 2/3rds of the total to be paid for the statue. I am not quite certain how this is arrived at, or whether it is the fact that £3666-13-4 has been remitted up to date on account of the statue, but Comptroller will be able to say. Possibly Mr. Colton has calculated on the £5000/- basis in which case the sum to be made up is £3333-6-8 of which £3000/- has already been remitted. I am inclined to think that this is the case, but as I do not receive intimation of actual remittances made by the Co-p

Comptroller, I cannot say for certain.

The instalments are due in both cases, so far as progress of the work goes, the tiger being in the clay and the statue cast in plaster.
